Dear Ms Fika Megawati,

Thank you for your email. Yes, you may modify the title of your paper to suit the paper content. As we have informed you, the unedited volume is not sent to the CRC Press, the publisher which will manage the indexing process. In regard to the indexing process, the final decision whether or not the submitted e-proceedings can be indexed will rest in the Scopus management since Scopus has their own team of reviewers.

Hope this explanation can answer your questions.

Best regards,
The E-Proceedings Team

Thank you for your response. Yes, we get the point that my paper will not be published in CRC Press, what I mean here is that the index for unedited volume e proceeding by UNY Press, will my article indexed by Google scholar at least if I publish there? since nowadays the online publication needs to have index so that it can be automatically included in our SINTA (Risteksikti) for our academic point.

what about refund that is mentioned in the previous email on August 3 2017, with subject "E-Proceedings CALL FOR FULL PAPERS The 15th Asia TEFL and 64th TEFLIN International" Conference which says

9. The publication fee for unaccepted papers will be refunded to the designated bank account provided by presenters.

could you please provide information for us.

Thank you
