The important skill that students need is reading, speaking, writing and listening. Of course it is not easy. So I think that they must try to learn and make it to be habitual in every day. It is like I try to teach them bu using pictures of shapes that consist of the examples. I creat the big book and give it lot of the picture of shapes consist with the explanation and quiz.

In this big book I give lot of picture the kind of shapes that consist with the name and example.I have try to teach the student by this big book, and I can see from their face that they are fun with this method. Some of them read the book only 3 times and after that I ask them to open the next page , it is about a quiz, it consist of the picture of shape and I also give some of the example of the shapes but I hide the name of the shape because I want them to answer it. The result, they can answer it perfectly because the fact they just remember and imagine the picture of the shapes and try to match it with the example of the shape. Even they laugh as much when I give them know about kind of the funniest example but it is work, they are more be easy to remember and imagine it.
